

Publishing House Poutníkova Četba (The Pilgrim Reading)

Background and Goals

Pilgrim Reading is a Christian publishing house which follows the reformation efforts of the Free Reformed Church established in what is now the Czech Republic in 1880. Their conviction stemmed from the legacy of the Czech reformation led by men such as John Huss and Jan Amos Komensky (Comenius), as well as from the reformation in other countries under John Wyclif, Martin Luther, John Calvin.

The vision we have at Pilgrim Reading is to bring to readers books that would glorify the only true God and help them discover and understand God's truths which are revealed in the Bible, once and for all, and which lead man to repent of sin and believe in God through His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. The purpose of such books is not only to educate the mind, but to have an impact on the entire life of a converted person, who longs to live for God's glory, that is in truth, and practical holiness. Our books should benefit both the readers themselves and their fellow men and women.

We firmly believe and confess that the Bible is the very best and the most important book which has ever been or will be published. We believe and confess that it is the Holy Spirit who enables us to understand the Bible the way that the Author, the Lord God Himself, intends – in truth.

We believe and understand that there are tools which help us see biblical truths better and have deeper awareness of them in our lives. Books are such tools, that is, books that glorify God the Father through the Lord Jesus Christ's deeds, which are enlivened by the Holy Spirit.

To the only God be the glory!
